Ryan.Allen@AccidentFund.com

Ryan joined the Accident Fund team as a loss control consultant in 2012 and was promoted to senior loss control specialist in 2018. He is also a part of the Loss Control Technical Services Team with responsibilities related to data collection/validation and efficiency improvements that support company projects.

Ryan's safety consulting tenure includes working for monoline workers' compensation carriers, conducting industrial hygiene testing/monitoring and aiding policyholders to mitigate leading loss driver exposures in the Southeast. He specializes in construction-related risks, with a track record of working with policyholders to build self-sustaining safety efforts that have aided their efforts of reducing experience modification ratings.

Ryan earned a Bachelor of Science in occupational safety and health from Murray State University and a Master of Science in occupational safety and health management from Murray State. He also obtained his Certified Safety Professional (CSP) designation and his Certified Authority on Workers' Compensation (CAWC) designation. Ryan is a member of the East Tennessee chapter of the American Society of Safety Professionals (ASSP).
